

Class Descriptions

All classes will hold a final performance on the last day of class

Broadway Action – Immerse yourself in acting and dance. Hip-hop, tap, jazz, and other dance techniques will be covered half the day and acting will be the other half. Characterization and the acting process will be explored.

Circus Arts – Become a true entertainer with juggling, clowning, magic tricks, and more. Come and learn how to master the circus arts. Amaze your friends. It's tons of fun.

Dance the Circus – Take your entertaining skills and add choreographed movement and dance and really amaze your friends.

Do A Play All the Way, Cinderella – Act out the classic fairy tale that is one of the world's best loved stories. There are lots of great roles. In a collaboration with CVA and Dance Project, the day is spent dramatizing the story and learning all aspects of musical theatre including acting singing, dance, and working on the set and costumes.

Do A Play All the Way, Robin Hood – Another chance to act out a classic tale. This one includes acting, singing (optional), movement, stage combat (sword fighting, hand-to-hand), or dance, as well as, set design and construction. Taught with CVA and Dance Project.

Improvisation – Learn comedy improvisation as practiced by our own improv troupe, Soylent Greensboro. Learn techniques for on the spot comedy and movement. Improvisational acting for half the day and the other half learn improvisational movement and dance. Creativity abounds.

Let's Make a Movie – Learn the techniques involved in making a movie both in front of and behind the camera. Write, direct, act, and shoot the various scenes.
